

About Me

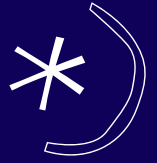

I have always been finding ways to express myself creatively even as I worked a very black and white job as an accountant. When the inspiration found me for my first novel, I grabbed on and followed this new path. Now that I am on a new journey I listen to every inspiration to create more stories and more characters.

Contact Information

- ✉ AprilWaverly@gmail.com
- 🌐 www.aprilwaverly.com
- 📷 aprilwaverly

Published Books

One Shared Heart

Brighton Publishing - November 2020

After Emma loses her mother she prepares for life without her there for all those big moments. Until an heirloom left behind finds a way to give Emma back the mother she lost.

Is Roscoe a Bird?

Self Published - TBD 2021

First of the Roscoe series, following a creature who doesn't quite fit in. Trying to find acceptance is hard until he shows off all he has to offer.

Upcoming Projects

- Seeing ThroughWings - Fictional Novel
- Don't Skip Smooth Stones - Fictional Novel
- Is Roscoe A Bunny? - Children's Book
- Screwing With Time - Fictional Novel

April Waverly

Author

Personal Interests

Outside of finding ways to express my creativity, I love spending time with my family. So much of the inspiration for my books comes from our memories together. I enjoy baking, traveling, learning new things, and like any accountant, math.

Other Skills

Motherhood

Staying
Organized

Accounting

“As a writer I create my characters' reality, as a human we all create our own reality.”

- April Waverly